

P. G. Wodehouse

The Personal Narrative Assignment 21

- poem. Memorize section 7 of William Wordsworth’s “We Are Seven.”
- reading. Complete Lesson 21 in your study guide and the corresponding reading, which includes works by Juhani Aho, Guðmundur Friðjónsson and P. G. Wodehouse.
- writing. The final draft of your essay will be due the last week (third week of February).
- journal. There is no journal writing assignment this week.

Long-Term Assignment

- biography. You will be writing a 3- to 10-page biography of someone that you know—a relative, neighbor or friend. The only criterion is that the person must be over the age of fifty. Again, here are sample interviews and biographies written by past students that you can use as examples. Your outline will be due the last week in February.
- narrative for Speech Day. The final draft of your narrative essay for Speech Day will be due the last week of February. Be sure to give a context for the narrative—time and place—in the beginning of the essay. Also, include appropriate detail, description and dialog.

P. G. Wodehouse is famous for his popular series of stories about a butler named Jeeves in his “Jeeves and Wooster” series of stories.

Wodehouse was a best-selling author who made a fortune on his humorous books.
