Assignment 31

- I hope that you had a good “Daffodils Day” two Fridays ago. April 15 was the real date that William Wordsworth went out with his sister and saw the mass of daffodils. Look at a daffodils cake from this year here.
- Complete Lesson 29 in your study guide after doing the accompanying reading.
- Complete Poetry and Poetics 29: Lyric Poetry.
- Complete Grammar and Punctuation 29.
- The picture on this assignment sheet is of King Midas and his daughter whom he turned to gold.
- Of course, another riddle! What do you expect? Here it is: Out of 100 ladies who went to a church dinner, 85 had a leather pocketbook, 75 had black shoes, 60 carried an umbrella, and 90 wore a ring. How many ladies must have had all four items? Again, you can get help from your family, but you can't search on the internet! Please write down the answer on a piece of paper to get credit.
