

English Literature and History
Assignment 32

- Send your children's book if you have not already. If you bring the book in, remember not to bind it—please just attach the book with some kind of clip.
- Read the excerpt from Charles Dickens' David Copperfield. Study the vocabulary for the passage and answer the reading questions. Above is an illustration of the meeting between the aunt and the Murdstones. Mr. Dick stands in the background.
- Continue studying for a test on English History, chapters 1–24. The test will include multiple choice and matching. Remember that the test guide should help you study the important material At least 70% of the questions will come from this work sheet. The student with the highest grade will be named Rex Perpetuus (or perpetual king). The test will be given on the last day of class. You will need to know the following:
 - * The names of the dynasties of England and Britain (Tudor, Stuart, Hanoverian, Saxo-Coburg) and what dynasty each monarch belongs to. We will go over these in class.
 - * All of the all of the kings and queens of England in order up to Queen Victoria (no dates necessary). I will help you memorize these in class.

- * Important names and events. Examples: Thomas Cromwell, Thomas More, Northumberland, Duke of Wellington, Wyatt's Rebellion, the Battle of the Nile.
