

American History Assignment 25

- The picture on this assignment page is of Dwight D. Eisenhower.
- I did not give a chance for anyone to sing the campaign song of the Democrat Party. You can earn extra credit (5 pts. on unit test) next week, then, if you memorize the song. Extra, extra credit (10 points on unit test) if you can work with someone else and harmonize!
- Read Chapter 28 in Abeka, “Years of Strength and Stability.”
- One of the campaign slogans of Eisenhower was “I like Ike” (see below).
- Take the test on Units 6 and 7.
- Watch Ike’s Farewell Speech in which he talks about the threat of communism and the Military Industrial Complex. He urges for “balance” between private and public enterprise as well as in all things regarding progress.
- Listen to John F. Kennedy’s famous Speech given in Berlin.

